"Change happens at the speed of trust. – Stephen M. R. Covey"

'I worked closely with Karen from HR Consult when establishing a new public company, based in Perth, WA. Karen was instrumental in setting up the processes and systems required to grow a small core team. Karen provided her high-level experience and knowledge in a new and fluid environment, and I depended entirely on her judgement and advice during this period.'

'I would recommend Karen highly as an HR consultant on both a strategic and tactical level, and would not hesitate to work with her again if the opportunity were to arise.'

ex-CEO, Burgundy Diamond Mines Ltd

'Karen for HR Consult has been invaluable to Cadoux Ltd and our group of companies, over the last couple of years.'

'Karen has complemented our organisational structure with many key hires as well as deploying a commonsense approach to broader HR and workplace complexities, such as organisational structuring, employee performance and development and retention structures. I highly recommend Karen's delightful demeanour, straightforward approach and comprehensive expertise.' MD, Cadoux Ltd

professional summary

Karen is a strategic and solutions-focused practitioner with deep expertise in Human Resources, Organisational Design and Change Management. With substantial leadership experience across project, corporate, and operational environments—including renewables, resources, engineering, and not-for-profit sectors—she brings a considered, practical, and objective approach to delivering tailored workplace solutions.

Karen excels in partnering with leaders to foster trust, engagement, and empowerment, enabling teams to achieve higher levels of performance and growth. She understands that organisational success hinges on attracting and retaining top talent and cultivating a positive, inclusive culture where people can thrive. Driven by a passion for unlocking potential, Karen identifies barriers to success and transforms challenges into opportunities, guiding organisations toward optimal performance and sustainable growth.

I am constantly guided by my personal values of leadership, respect, fairness and sense of humour. Spending time with family and friends is enriching; whilst music, dance, tennis and time immersed in nature makes my heart sing.
